SPIRIT OF WESTERN COLORADO RECIPIENTS ANNOUNCED

Grand Junction, CO – The Aldasoro Family of Telluride and Joseph Prinster of Grand Junction were recognized for their long time community leadership efforts and were awarded the “Spirit of Western Colorado Award”® on Fri., Nov. 7, 2008 at Dalby, Wendland & Co., P.C.

Each year at their annual meeting, Dalby recognizes clients who have excelled in business with a spirit of integrity, a keen eye for business, and a commitment and compassion for their respective communities.

Ralf Garrison, keynote speaker at the event, addressed DWC staff and guests about the impact of national economic issues in Colorado.

DWC, the largest accounting firm in Western Colorado, is ranked by Colorado Biz magazine as one of the top professional accounting firms in the state.

The firm, founded in 1948, has seven offices in Western Colorado and celebrates its 60th anniversary this year.
